A cruise on the Rhine is always a most rewarding experience. It's one of the world's greatest industrial waterways but is also blessed with fine scenery and plenty of sights to see. Our "Classic Rhine" cruises, which ply from Amsterdam on the North Sea all the way upstream to Basel, Switzerland's highly cultural second city, guarantee you one cultural or scenic highlight after another as both kinds abound on this stretch of the Rhine. Just some of these highlights are Amsterdam's picturesque canals, followed by crossing the IJsselmeer, Holland's large inland sea; Cologne with its historic treasures and Romanesque churches, and the Moselle with its dense vineyards as far as Cochem; the central part of the Rhine valley with its numerous castles and the Lorelei rock, steeped in legend; Strasbourg, the thriving capital of Alsace with its French charm and then on to Basel, where Germany meets France and both meet Switzerland at the gateway to the Swiss Alps.

Our optional excursions, such as to the former royal seat of Heidelberg or a trip through Alsace exploring its famous wine route and romantic wine-growing villages, enable you to see how the man-made landscape to this side of the Rhine is a sort of work of art in itself. This cruise can be taken in both directions, namely downstream from Basel to Amsterdam as well.
