Vienna

This Classic cruise down the Danube gives you a completely new 'take' on the culture and scenery flanking this mighty European river. From the Bavarian city of Passau, where three rivers converge, this week-long round trip takes you first to Vienna, the Danube's great city that combines the glamour of its former royal and imperial status with the charm and friendly welcome of today's Austria. The next leg takes you to UNESCO-protected Budapest, with its triumphal buildings on both sides of the river exuding a grandeur you'll never forget. The cruise continues down into the great plain of Hungary where you'll be able to see demonstrations of Hungarian riding skills and sample exuberant Hungarian wine. Another interesting insight into this country comes from passing through the vast fields of peppers from which Hungarian paprika is made.

On the return voyage our AMADEUS ship moors in Bratislava, the capital of Slovakia, which has an imposing fortified castle and various Baroque palaces. Further upstream it passes through the scenic beauties of the Wachau region, whose productive vines make it one of Austria's best wine-growing terrains. The cultural treasures of the towns of Krems and Duernstein are nearby, as is also the Benedictine Abbey of Melk. The ship then continues to end the cruise back in Passau.
