Provence

Camargue

Observe fascinating facets of the south of France on this splendid one-off cruise along the French Rhône and Saône rivers. This week-long round trip starts and ends in the gourmet's paradise of Lyon, whose lovingly restored historical sites have been declared a UNESCO World Heritage Centre. We then carry you off past colourful vineyards into the Mâconnais and Beaujolais wine-growing regions, whose wines have commanded world renown for centuries.

The AMADEUS Symphony moors again in Lyon, giving you an extended opportunity to see the sights of one of France's oldest and most charming cities, before setting off downstream to Avignon, and eventually almost as far as the Mediterranean. Avignon is known not only for its ruined bridge (and the famous melody with which it is associated!), but also for its historically famous papal palace, winding lanes, and tiny chapels – making this city as a whole a further highlight on your voyage of discovery. And there's much more to come in the form of the astonishingly preserved Roman "Pont du Gard" aqueduct, the unique beauty of the Camargue nature reserve with its wild horses and flamingos, and the "Gorges de l'Ardèche", Europe's most spectacular series of gorges.
